

THE NEXT FAITHFUL STEP

A Devotion About Trusting God
When You Cannot See the Whole Path

WEEKLY DEVOTION

The Next Faithful Step

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

2 CORINTHIANS 5:7

I once watched a blind man walk confidently through a busy airport with his guide dog. People rushed around him, announcements echoed through the terminal, and distractions filled the space. Yet he moved steadily forward.

What stayed with me was not simply the dog's ability to guide. It was the man's willingness to trust. He could not see the next turn, the obstacles ahead, or the gate where he would eventually arrive. He kept walking because he trusted the one leading him.

Trusting One Step at a Time

That picture has returned to me many times when God has asked me to move forward without showing me the entire plan. I would prefer every detail, answer, and guarantee before I take the first step. Maybe you would too. But God often invites us to trust Him one step at a time.

Faith is not pretending that our questions do not exist. It is choosing to trust God's character when we cannot see His plan. Doubt does not disqualify us. The important question is what we do with it. Will we allow doubt to quietly pull us away from God, or will we bring it honestly to Him?

"If we are faithless, He remains faithful."

2 TIMOTHY 2:13

Our hope is not in our ability to hold onto God perfectly. Our hope is in His ability to hold onto us.

You may not know how the situation in front of you will work out. You may still have unanswered questions.

That does not mean you cannot walk by faith today.

You do not need to see the whole path. You simply need enough trust to take the next faithful step.

Reflect

What is the next step God is asking you to take, even though you cannot see the entire path?

Pray

Father,

I bring You the questions and uncertainties I have been carrying. Help me trust Your character when I cannot see Your plan.

Strengthen my faith through Your Word, and give me courage to take the next step You place before me.

Thank You for remaining faithful and for holding onto me when my faith feels weak.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Blessings!

Teri Winters
